GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

After the last race Monday at Ingleside the jockeys riding there presented starter Dick Dwyer with a magnificent diamond pin. Bullman, who has a very high regard for Mr. Dwyer, was the jockey instrumental in arranging for the present.

Bullman, who is continually in hot water with starters all over the country, manages to get along with Mr. Dwyer without friction. As a matter of fact, Dwyer imposes fewer fines and less suspension than any other starter. He, therefore, is extremely popular with the riding talent, both east and west.

The starting at the coast this winter has never been equaled. Holtman's success while handling the webbing has been simply marvelous. From November 15 to December 20, during which time 186 races were run, he made only twenty-one starts which could be called poor, and the time taken up at the post during each race averaged a fraction less than a minute.

Since Dwyer has taken charge of the starting the time consumed has averaged something like two and a half minutes, but his work has been uniformly good.

James McCormick, who trains Louis V. Bell's great colt, Hermis, laughs at the idea of the western crack, McChesney, making the pride of his stable race, but for all that he holds the westerner in respect. Mr. McCormick is on the plan of the man from Missouri. Those who would convince him must first "show him," as the saying goes. Unquestionably he believes Hermis to be the greatest horse in the country, but he is not one of those men who will set a horse up on a pedestal to be adored. He is too old at the game for that. He knows that there never was, and probably never will be, a horse so great as to be immune from defeat, whether through accident or for some other reason. The list of great horses is a long one, but the list of unbeaten thoroughbreds which have raced with horses of high class, and frequently, is extremely short. In recent years the great Commando has been the nearest approach to such a horse, and yet Commando was forced to taste of the bitterness of defeat—through an accident maybe—but a defeat nevertheless. In trainer McCormick's opinion the Suburban winner Alcedo, sent to the Willamette Stud, near Lexington, recently, was the fastest and best and greatest thoroughbred in the country. He has good reason for his faith in Alcedo, although the great majority of horsemen will not agree with him.—New York Evening Sun.

Fred Foster has arrived at Louisville, Ky., after a three-year's stay in Germany. Mr. Foster goes there after Dr. Rice, the great son of Onondaga—Bonnie Lee, and he will take the stallion back to Germany with him to be placed in the stud of Baron Hanns von Bleichroeder, at Cologne. Dr. Rice, which won the Brooklyn in 1894, has been at the farm of Mr. Hiram J. Scoggin for several years. While Mr. Scoggin did not own the animal, he had a breeding interest in this sire of Frank Rice, Sidney C. Love and other youngsters.

The small string of racehorses left by the late trainer James Murphy will be trained by his nephew and namesake, James Murphy Houlihan, in the interest of the dead turfman's brother and sister. There are five head, mostly two-year-olds, and it is intended to train them at Latonia the coming season. The young man has inherited the love of his uncle for the thoroughbreds, and has been about quite enough to get confidence in himself as a trainer. The heirs, Mrs. Houlihan, of Urbana, O., and Patrick Murphy, of Memphis, believe there is good material in the youngsters, and they wish to try them for future turf honors.

The experiences of American jockeys on the other side, turfmen believe, will gradually convince riders here that it is to their advantage to remain on their native heath. Tod Sloan, Lester Reiff, John Reiff, Milton Henry and others who have become entangled on the foreign turf might have been riding yet with prosperity to themselves had they remained in America. But the idea that they could make more money by riding in foreign countries impelled them to cross the ocean. Just now, however, there is just as much money to be made by a first-class jockey in America as in either England or France.

James McLaughlin has under his care at Morris Park thirty-two thoroughbreds, not one of which has coughed or shown the slightest ailment thus far. In the lot is a colt called Royal Summons, by Kantaka—Himyar. While the property of the Pepper stable he was ill nearly all the season, notwithstanding which the track experts declared that he was phenomenally fast. He was purchased at the sale of the Pepper horses during the Aqueduct meeting, but not until after a "killing" had been made on him, when he was backed from 15 to 1 down to 4 to 1.

Speaking of Coburn's suspension in Frisco, G. C. Bennett, the boy's employer, said recently: "I do not know exactly what the trouble was. Coburn is headstrong, and he may have offended against the rules. I do not think he will come to New Orleans. He would be of no use to me while under suspension, and, besides, his contract does not begin until March 15."

Friends of Milton Henry say that the jockey will, on his return to France, withdraw his suit against the French Jockey Club and trust to obtain a rehearing of his case from the newly constructed Board of Stewards. Since the stir made by the international episode such action as that taken last September will not be repeated without a full and fair hearing of the case by a body re-enforced from the ranks of turfmen of prominence.

When Olympian, the Keene colt sent to Newmarket two years ago, and which was brought back from England last Saturday, was seen by several expert horsemen, they marveled much at how badly he looked. Some think that James Rowe will have a difficult task in winning with him. "Skeets" Martin, who rode him in England, says that he had lots of speed, but would not try at the critical moment.

The successful trainer, J. C. Milam, arrived from California last Tuesday to take up the big string of horses he will campaign in 1903. His stable this season will be composed of fully twenty horses, headed by Owenton, which has been turned out since last summer, but bids fair to stand training next season and is entered in all the big eastern and western handicaps.

The noted Commando, now in his first year of stud service at the famous Keene breeding establishment at Castleton, when last weighed tipped the beam at 1,360 pounds, and stands on record as one of the largest stallions now in America. He towers far above the mighty Kingston in height and weight, and even Ben Brush and Voter look small in comparison. Commando and his near relative, Disguise II., are drawing cards to visitors who inspect Castleton.

Jockey Lucien Lynne has been compelled to change all his plans and he will set sail from New York for England, January 14, instead of February 1. Last Wednesday Sanford C. Lynne, the young jockey's father, received a telegram from J. R. Keene, stating that new emergencies had arisen which necessitated his leaving for England before the time previously agreed upon, and asking him to make preparations to sail on the above date.

Word has been received in this country that Tony Hamilton, who has been riding in Russia, is suffering from consumption and has gone to Florence, Italy.

Winner—B. h. by Sayre—Stephanie, by Macduff (trained by J. Arthur).
Went to post at 4:03. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second easily. Moroni was under restraint for the first half, came to the extreme outside at the stretch turn, caught the tiring Lord Neville in the last sixteenth and outgamed him in the final drive. Lord Neville ran the best race he has shown at the meeting and was a contender all the way. Zack Ford ran on the outside all the way and was tiring in the stretch run. Ailyar showed the most early speed, but tired and quit when caught. Dandie Belle went to her knees at the turn into the homestretch and was eased up all through the last furlong.

Went to post at 4:35. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Mosketo saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and was under a drive all through the last furlong to stall off Flaneur and just managed to last long enough. Flaneur ran a good race and finished on the inside of the leaders in deep going. Miss Shanley rallied and came again and was wearing the first two down at the finish. Her rider fell after he passed the winning mark. She swerved over from the outside in the last sixteenth and interfered with Chickadee and Lord Pepper. Pay the Fiddler was left at the post and closed a big gap. Swordsman ran poorly.

Winner—Br. g. by Watercross—Pensa (trained by F. Edwards).
Went to post at 2:03. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Botany got away slowly, but quickly assumed command and led unextended throughout, outclassing the field. Florinel II., particularly favored by the going and carefully nursed, barely lasted long enough to save second place. Saintly closed up very strong under a weak ride at the end. Montana Peeress disliked the going. Chappie ran badly, as foreshadowed by the betting. Prima II. is in poor form apparently.
Overweights—Prue, 5 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Star Ruby—Anarchy (trained by G. B. Morris).
Went to post at 2:34. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won in a canter; second driving. Precious Stone is a grand looker and his impressive victory stamps him a coming good one, especially in sloppy going. He is a quick breaker and forced the pace to the stretch, where he finished easily up. Rowena secured a lucky start, followed the winner's pace closely and ran a game race. Ambrita got away poorly and was rushed up to the leaders in a twinkling, then carried very wide and interfered with on the stretch turn and ran a high class race. Samar, a very handy looking filly, closed up very fast in the last quarter. Lord Wadsworth is highly tried, but got away badly.
Precious Stone, show, 1 to 4. Rowena, show, evens. Ambrita, show, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Apache—Juanita (trained by F. McMahon).
Went to post at 3:01. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won handily; second driving. Ned Dennis beat the barrier, but was skillfully reserved, came through like a flash in the stretch and scored a lucky victory. Jim Hale, away badly, closed a big gap and finished like a whirlwind and is at his best. Jarretiere d'Or did his best, but was unable to stride freely in the slippery going, still emphasized his improved form. Golden Light, away very badly, made up many lengths. The Pride fell out of the race early, but closed up fast in the last half. Tower of Candles was worn out in taking the lead after being nearly left and quit in the last quarter.
Corrected weights—The Pride, 119.
Overweights—Jim Hale, 3 pounds.

Time, 25, 50, 1:18, 1:44, 1:57.

Winner—Br. c. by Sain—Ada Reese (trained by C. T. Patterson).
Went to post at 3:32. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Corrigan was skillfully reserved for the first mile and, although seriously interfered with on the backstretch and badly bumped when a furlong out, finished like a flash, won drawing away and was best. Siddons, ridden hard throughout, trailed to the stretch, where he wore down the field fast. Lord Badge, away badly, trailed for the first half, then moved up too soon, ran a phenomenal quarter on the turn and, being weakly ridden in the stretch, was a good horse badly managed. Claude forced the pace for the major part of the journey and held on remarkably well. El R. Shannon was outclassed. Articulate quit in the last furlong. The Fretter seems to have lost his good form.
Scratched—(36784) Nones, 122; 36820 Diderot, 100.

Winner—Ch. f. by Rousseau—La Reina (trained by E. Carey).
Went to post at 3:56. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Diderot got away running and made the most of the advantage, led throughout well in hand and, when called on in the last quarter, came away like a flash and won easily up. Illohuo was skillfully reserved to the stretch and easily outran the others. Huachuca, unable to stride freely in the slippery going and away badly, closed a big gap and loomed up when a furlong out, but tired right at the end. Hermencia trailed to the stretch turn where he moved up very fast and ran a good race. Nellie Forest, prominent on snuffrance, fell away in the last quarter. Sweet Tooth disliked the going.
Scratched—36854 Star Cotton, 101; 36769 Milas, 98.

Time, 24, 50, 1:16, 1:23.

Winner—Ch. f. by Brighton—Nellie Bell (trained by W. L. Oliver).
Went to post at 4:23. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won driving; second easily. Gaviota is very fit, got away slowly, gradually moved up, finally won Sylvia Talbot down in the stretch and won going away. It was a pronounced reversal of form. Sylvia Talbot forced the pace at a fast rate, but succumbed to the winner's determined challenge in the stretch. The first two outclassed the field. Gold Bell, somewhat upset by the comparatively fast going, fell away in the last quarter and wants stiff going to show at his best. Fitzbrillar retired after going a fast half and is seemingly in poor form.
No show betting.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

At J. B. Haggins' Rancho del Paso the imported stallion, July, has just died. The horse was brought to this country on the strength of being a full brother of Sir Modred, Idalius and Cheviot, but he failed to make much of a mark in the stud. Galanthus, Justice, Juniper, Nellie Hawthorne, Summer and Jugurtha were about the best he sired.

Dr. J. G. Lyman, the New York millionaire who bought a half interest in a lot of thoroughbreds with Col. James E. Pepper, and later sold out, has sent a string of nine horses to the Iroquois Stud of Capt. James B. Clay, Lexington, Ky., to be trained during the winter in charge of Walter House. They will be raced east in the spring.

Thoroughbreds belonging to T. F. Barrett, Sheriff of Cook County, Illinois, arrived Monday at Montgomery Park in charge of W. Nutt, the ex-jockey. Included in the bunch are Della Ostrand and Barrack. The horses have gone into quarters at the local track for the cold season and will be started during the spring meeting.

It is said that jockey Redfern will not accept mounts outside of the Durnell & Herz stable until the track gets into good shape again. When he left New York Mr. Whitney's instructions were that he take no chances riding in large fields or when the track was in bad shape.

All but five of the horses of Tichenor & Co. will be shipped to Memphis today and rested up until the spring meeting at Montgomery Park. Trainer Poole said he had not given up hope that McChesney would wear the stable colors next season.

Jack Keene, who is trying to regain possession of jockey Grover Cleveland Fuller, received a letter from Fuller last Wednesday, saying he would remain on the ground till the contract expired rather than return.

Steeplechase jockey J. Johnson, who rode in the west for Gwynne Tompkins last season, has been engaged by L. V. Bell to pilot the extensive string of jumpers that he will campaign during the coming year.

George Cochran, the steeplechase jockey, who rode in France last season, is in New Orleans looking for a good lightweight to ride on the flat.

"Mose" Goldblatt has added Morania to his stable. He purchased the mare of A. Featherstone for $1,000.
